CORAM : S.U.KAMDAR, J.

P.C.

. By the present notice of motion the plaintiff seeks a direction that the defendant nos. 1 and 2 be directed to pay R. 14,94,000/-. Admittedly, the suit is for merely money claim. In my opinion, such a direction at the interim stage cannot be granted. The suit has to be tried. The defendant nos. 1 and 2 are the Bombay Stock Exchange and Security and Exchange Boar of India and in that view of the matter there can be no question of any apprehension requiring any order of deposit in the Court Motion dismissed accordingly. No order as to costs.
